UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	)	CASE NO. CR01-003-JCC
Plaintiff,	)
v.	)	SUMMARY REPORT OF U.S.
	)	MAGISTRATE JUDGE AS TO
WILLIE JOE MAYES,	)	ALLEGED VIOLATIONS
	)	OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

An initial hearing on supervised release revocation in this case was scheduled before me on October 26, 2007. The United States was represented by AUSA Roger Rogoff for Vince Lombardi and the defendant by Paula S. Deutsch for Jay W. Stansell. The proceedings were digitally recorded.

Defendant had been sentenced on or about April 17, 2001 by the Honorable John C. Coughenour on a charge of Felon in Possession of a Firearm, and sentenced to 60 months custody, 5 years supervised release. (Dkt.18.)

The conditions of supervised release included the standard conditions plus the requirements that defendant be prohibited from possessing a firearm, participate in substance abuse treatment and testing, abstain from alcohol, submit to search, and participate in mental health treatment.

On August 4, 2005, defendant admitted to violating the conditions of supervised release by using cocaine and marijuana. (Dkt. 28.) Defendant was sentenced to credit for time served, plus one day, with four years supervised release on the original conditions, plus the requirement that defendant participate in the collection of DNA, and successfully complete a treatment program at Thunderbird Recovery Center. (Dkt. 32.)

On July 27, 2006, defendant admitted to violating the conditions of supervised release by failing to notify his probation officer of a change in residence, failing to submit written reports, and failing to report for drug testing. (Dkt. 40.) Defendant was sentenced to a term of six months, and two years supervised release. (Dkt. 44.) He was required to reside in a halfway house for up to 120 days, and to participate in inpatient drug treatment.

In an application dated July 31, 2007 (Dkt. 45), U.S. Probation Officer Jeffrey S. Robson alleged the following violations of the conditions of supervised release:

1. Committing the Crime of Driving While License Suspended, in violation of the general condition that he not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

2. Failing to report to the U.S. Probation Office as directed to submit to testing to determine if he has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol during the months of June and July 2007, in violation of special condition #1.

Defendant was advised in full as to those charges and as to his constitutional rights.

Defendant admitted the alleged violations and waived any evidentiary hearing as to whether they occurred. (Dkt.47.)

I therefore recommend the Court find defendant violated his supervised release as alleged,

01 and that the Court conduct a hearing limited to the issue of disposition. The next hearing will be 02 set before Judge Coughenour.

03 Pending a final determination by the Court, defendant has been detained.

04 DATED this 26th day of October, 2007.
